

Book Collecting Basics

The staff of Oak Knoll—specialists in “books about books”—will be offering a workshop for those interested in collecting books. Bring a book you would like to know more about, and obtain practice using the essential print and online resources for learning about books. The workshop will be tailored to the interests of those who participate.

When: Saturday, May 3, 2008, 9am – noon

Where: 310 Delaware Street, New Castle, DE 19720

Cost: $15

Registration required; deadline 4/25/08 (limited to 10 participants)

To register call 800-996-2556 or e-mail kelly@oakknoll.com

Topics will include:

- why collect?
- deciding what to collect
- how to build a collection
- specialized vocabulary of the rare book trade
- function and use of bibliographies
- identifying what you have
- researching on the internet
- determining values for various purposes

This will be an informal workshop. We plan to have some refreshments available and will take at least one break during the morning. Learn more about Oak Knoll by visiting our website
