310 Delaware Street, New Castle, DE 19720

For our newest E-Catalogue #3: Miniature Books, we are presenting a wonderful grouping of rare teeny tiny books. Highlights are a low limitation leaf book of one of only 14 copies composed of fragments from the 15th-19th century, a fine example of printing on aluminum, mid-18th c. Foulis Press, and multiple titles on biblical history.

Oak Knoll Books was founded in 1976 by Bob Fleck, a chemical engineer by training, who let his hobby get the best of him. Somehow, making oil refineries more efficient using mathematics and computers paled in comparison to the joy of handling books. Oak Knoll Press, the second part of the business, was established in 1978 as a logical extension of Oak Knoll Books.

Today, Oak Knoll Books is a thriving company that maintains an inventory of over 25,000 titles. We specialize in books about bibliography, book collecting, book design, book illustration, book selling, bookbinding, bookplates, children's books, forgery, graphic arts, libraries, literary criticism, marbling, papermaking, printing history, publishing, typography, and writing & calligraphy— plus type specimens, fine press books, miniature books, and Delaware history.

Oak Knoll Books is a member of the International League of Antiquarian Booksellers (ILAB — about 2,000 dealers in 22 countries) and the Antiquarian Booksellers Association of America (ABAA — over 450 dealers in the US). Their logos appear on all of our antiquarian catalogues and web pages. These logos mean that we guarantee accurate descriptions and customer satisfaction. Our founder, Bob Fleck, has long been a proponent of the ethical principles embodied by ILAB & the ABAA. He has taken leadership roles in both organizations and is a past president of both the ABAA and ILAB.

We are located in the historic colonial town of New Castle (founded 1651), next to the Delaware River and have an open shop for visitors. The shop is situated in the Opera House, a building built by the Masons in 1879 with high ceilings and great views of the town and river. We are located close to Philadelphia and Washington, DC, and near many historic areas and attractive sights including Winterthur, the Delaware Art Museum, the Brandywine River Art Museum, and Longwood Gardens. Please see our website for more information on planning a visit.

Book selling is much more than balance sheets and income statements. We sell books because we really enjoy it and hope that fact comes through clearly when you deal with us.

MINATURE BOOKS

1. Ciceronis, M.T. (Cicero). DE OFFICUS DE SENECTUTE ET DE AMICITIA. London, England: Pickering Press, 1821, miniature book (8.4 x 5.0 cm), later leather, title gilt-stamped on spine, four raised bands on spine, all edges gilt, fore-edge painted. (viii), 155+(1) pages.

$ 950.00

Text in Latin. Spielmann 93. This copy later leather bound by "Nutt - Cambridge." Further research revealed that "Nutt - Cambridge" was William Henry Nutt who operated a bindery in Cambridge from the mid-1850s until 1864, which was later operated by the Stoakleys. See The British Bookmaker V:52 (October 1891), 81. In testimony regarding a disputed election to the House of Commons in 1857, Nutt is identified as William Henry Nutt, a bookbinder of Green Street and residing on Brunswick Street in Cambridge. (Reports of the Committees, Vol. 5, 140). Nutt later moved to London, where a report of his bankruptcy describes him as a "leather dresser and seller" (London Gazette, December 23, 1864, and Edinburgh Gazette, May 28, 1867). Inscribed on the front pastedown is the name of J. Climenson, who married Emily Jane Montagu, author of a number of works on the British female aristocracy, including Elizabeth Montagu: the Queen of the Blue Stockings, her Correspondence from 1720 to 1791, by her Great-great Niece (London, 1906). This volume with a beautiful fore-edge painting depicting a town that resembles Rome, Italy. Spine is sunned.
