
Contents

Foreword: Christopher de Hamel 7

Acknowledgments 9

1. Introduction 13

Beginnings

2. Birth, Early Beginnings and the 'White Bear' 21

3. Sandhurst and Ireland 35

4. 'Natural History is My Only Recreation Here ...' 47

The End of an Apprenticeship

5. A 'National Loss' after Adelaide, South Australia 61

6. Indigenous Language Collecting in New Zealand, 1845–53 75

7. Collection and Dispersal 93

South Africa

8. Indigenous Language Collecting at the Cape, 1854–61 113

9. Procuring Black Letter Books and Poetry 135

10. Cape Town's Munificent Gift 153

New Zealand

11. Boone's Catalogues of 1862 and 1863 169

12. Kawau Island, England and Home Again, 1862–88 187

13. Private Library to Public Collection 205

14. A Rich Harvest from Local Sources of Supply 219

The Legacy

15. Later Purchases and Presentation Copies 235

16. The Grey Legacy 251

Appendices 257

References Used in Text 271

Bibliography 273

Notes 297

Index 333

Colour illustrations appear at pages 112 and 256