

CONTENTS

| | |
|------------------|------|
| Acknowledgements | x |
| Preface | xiii |
| Brief Chronology | xvii |

Part One: THE MAKING OF A COLLECTOR

| | |
|--|----|
| 1 Motion (from 1879) | 3 |
| The Australian International Exhibition of 1879 – Colonial pride – ‘Self-help’ and self-made exemplars – Colonial growth – Impact of the Exhibition | |
| 2 Duty (1836–1848) | 15 |
| Pedigree and family history: inherited stories – Boyhood and books in the 1840s | |

| | | | | | |
|--|--|-----|----|--|-----|
| 3 | Romance (1849–1866) | 45 | 9 | Philanthropy (1883–1897) | 245 |
| | Influential models – Gold and the rush to prosperity – Building a common culture – The first university in the southern hemisphere: Sydney University in the 1850s – Learning, democracy and public duty – Useful knowledge and Mechanics’ Institutes – Public life and literary pursuits | | | What giving meant – Models for giving: examples of philanthropy – Giving in Mitchell’s circle: social needs and social action – Cultural philanthropy and building institutions | |
| 4 | Reality (1866–1870) | 83 | 10 | Posterity (from 1893) | 272 |
| | A man of his time – Theatre and satire – Accessory to a ‘national’ literature – Interest in books – Authority and specialisation – Family life – The ‘Great Will Scandal’ | | | New life – Racing for a ‘national’ library | |
| Part Two: MORE THAN A PASSION FOR COLLECTING | | | 11 | Contribution (1900–1907) | 307 |
| | | | | Reputation and affairs – A ‘national’ library from one man’s collection | |
| 5 | Decision (1870–1878) | 131 | | Dramatis Personae | 331 |
| | Moving – Windeyer and friends – Books and collecting | | | Family Trees | 342 |
| 6 | Reflection (1880–1888) | 164 | | List of Abbreviations | 347 |
| | ‘The book authority’: what Mitchell collected, why, and how – Emerging from shadow: the fire of 1882 – Another self-made man: ‘The Snakeman’ and his museum – Donkey tales: the 1888 Centenary | | | Notes | 349 |
| 7 | History: Developing Historic Sense (to 1888) | 197 | | Bibliography | 412 |
| | Ancestors and antiquarians – Developing historic sense – Antiquarianism and literature – Centennial celebrations and historic awareness | | | Illustrations | 456 |
| 8 | Discovery: Australian History (1888–1899) | 219 | | Index | 459 |
| | History’s records and the history bounds – Mitchell’s circle of learning | | | The Author | 477 |